United States Code, or to Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76.

SEC. 9087. (a) PROHIBITION.—During the period beginning on the date of the enactment of this Act and through December 28, 1991, no product manufactured or assembled by Toshiba America, Incorporation, or Toshiba Corporation (or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries) may be purchased by the Department of Defense for the purpose of resale of such product in a military exchange store or in any other morale, welfare, recreation, or resale activity operated by the Department of Defense (either directly or by concessionaire).

(b) EXCEPTION.—The prohibition in subsection (a) shall not apply to microwave ovens manufactured or assembled in the United States.

Health care professionals.

SEC. 9088. Of the funds made available in this Act for military personnel appropriations, $3,000,000 shall be available for the payment of bonuses to officers of the Army Nurse Corps, the Navy Nurse Corps and officers designated as Air Force nurses. A bonus, in an amount not to exceed $6,000, may be paid, under such regulations and conditions as the Secretary of Defense deems appropriate, to such an officer: Provided, That the officer is on active duty under a call or order to active duty for a period of not less than one year: Provided further, That the officer is qualified and performing as an anesthetist: And provided further, That this provision shall not be effective unless specifically authorized.

Disadvantaged persons.

SEC. 9089. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, none of the funds made available by this Act shall be used by the Department of Defense to exceed, outside the fifty United States and the District of Columbia, 182,011 civilian workyears: Provided, That workyears shall be applied as defined in the Federal Personnel Manual Supplement 298-2, Book IV: Provided further, That workyears expended in dependent student hiring programs for disadvantaged youth shall not be included in this workyear limitation.

Contracts.

State and local governments.

Employment and unemployment.

SEC. 9090. None of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act with respect to any fiscal year for the Navy may be used to carry out an electromagnetic pulse program in the Chesapeake Bay area in connection with the Electromagnetic Pulse Radiation Environment Simulator for Ships (EMPRESS II) program unless or until the Secretary of Defense certifies to the Congress that conduct of the EMPRESS II program is essential to the national security of the United States and to achieving requisite military capability for United States naval vessels, and that the economic, environmental, and social costs to the United States of conducting the EMPRESS II program in the Chesapeake Bay area are far less than the economic, environmental, and social costs caused by conducting the EMPRESS II program elsewhere.

SEC. 9091. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each contract awarded by the Department of Defense in fiscal year 1990 for construction or service performed in whole or in part in a State which is not contiguous with another State and has an unemployment rate in excess of the national average rate of unemployment as determined by the Secretary of Labor shall include a provision requiring the contractor to employ, for the purpose of performing that portion of the contract in such State that is not contiguous with another State, individuals who are residents of such State and who, in the case of any craft or trade, possess or would be able to acquire promptly the necessary skills: Provided, That the Secretary of De-
